Section 2 - Purpose

Section 3 - Meetings

Each Chapter of ZCCC shall meet regularly once each month on the day and at the time provided in these Standing Rules. The Board of Directors of ZCCC, hereafter referred to as the Board, for good cause, may change or cancel regular meetings.

ARTICLE II - Officers and Elections

A group of members in good standing may form an Associate Chapter at any time and may elect an individual to represent their Chapter at the monthly Board meeting. At the time a Chapter has a group of ten or more ZCCC members in good standing and meet monthly as a Chapter, that elected individual will become a voting member of the Board.

Section 2 - Term of Office

The term of office is one year. President and Vice-President may not serve more than two consecutive terms in the same position. Any person appointed to the position of President or Vice-President by the Board, is deemed to have served the entirety of that term during which they were appointed, the same as if they had been elected to that position, for the purposes of term limitations regardless of when the appointment occurs. Other officers can serve any number of terms to which they may be elected. No member can be forced to run for office

A newly elected Board, in an effort to promote continuity in ZCCC, may invite the outgoing President or Vice President to serve as an additional member of the Board. That former officer will have voting privileges on all ZCCC matters, but will have no duties or responsibilities.

Section 3 - Nomination of Officers

The President shall appoint at the general meeting in June, a nominating committee of three members to present a slate of nominations at the general meeting in July. Open nominations from the floor shall be accepted at the meeting in August. No members shall accept the nomination for or hold more than one elected office. Every May the description of each board position shall be published in the Odometer.

Section 4 - Election of Officers

The election of officers, each of whom must receive a majority of votes cast, shall be held at the general meeting in September. The meeting may be in-person or virtual and the ballots may be physical, or virtual ballots. Unless an absentee ballot is previously requested, only those members in good standing in attendance either in person or virtually at the September general meeting, will be allowed to vote. If the nominated slate of officers presented at the general meeting in September is un-opposed, the Board as nominated may be elected by general acclamation. Absentee ballots may be requested in writing from the Secretary and returned to same by mail prior to the election. Absentee ballots shall not be opened until the election meeting. Upon such proposal being made, a copy thereof shall be included in the next Odometer, electronically transmitted or mailed to the general membership and then handed out at the next general meeting. Copies will be made available to those unable to attend. Voting shall be controlled by the same rules relating to the election of officers, except that no absentee ballots will be allowed. If a majority of the members at the next general meeting vote in favor of the proposal, the amendment shall thereby be adopted.

The Board of the ZCCC or a member in good standing, by written proposals submitted to the Secretary, may propose an amendment to the Rules of Order. Upon such proposal being made, a notification of a vote upon such proposed change shall appear in the next Odometer and a vote will be taken at the next general meeting.

If the host does not organize/host the event for two consecutive years, they no longer "own" the event and another member may take "ownership" to organize/host said event. If a disagreement occurs as to the "ownership" of said event, the Vice-President will determine "ownership" of the event in accordance with these Standing Rules.

The "owner" of an event may relinquish "ownership" of that event at any time by notifying the Vice-President of their intent to do so.

If another member wishes to organize/host an event which has been held within the last two years, permission from the previous "owner" must be obtained in advance and details agreed upon.
