East bound and down, loaded up and truckin',
We're gonna do what they say can't be done.
We've got a long way to go and a short time to get there.
I'm east bound, just watch ol' "Bandit" run.
Keep your foot hard on the pedal. Son,
never mind them brakes.
Let it all hang out cause we got a run to make.
The boys are thirsty in Atlanta and there's beer in Texarcana.

And we'll bring it back no matter what it takes.

East bound and down, loaded up and truckin',
We're gonna do what they say can't be done.
We've got a long way to go and a short time to get there.
I'm east bound, just watch ol' "Bandit" run.

Jerry Reed

On August 24 & 25 ZCCC will again be taking a trip to the eastern plains of Colorado to visit Colorado historical sites. At Beecher Island, southeast of Wray, there was a major Indian battle in September 1868 between Army volunteer scouts and the Arapaho, Cheyenne and Lakota Tribes that resulted in the death of Indian warrior Roman Nose and also the deaths of Army scouts and officers. This is just one of the historic sites we'll be visiting. There are more details elsewhere in this Odometer.

As announced in July, ZCCC is co-host for the ZCCC and Spartan College of Aeronautics and Technology Wheels and Wings Showcase 2019 at Spartan College on August 10. As our name is front and center, let's have a great showing of club cars. Please see the article elsewhere in this Odometer.

The Constitution Review is nearing an end and hopefully the club will get to vote on the revised Constitution and By-laws in September.

Elsewhere in the Odometer, you will see a proposed slate of officers for next year's ZCCC Board. At the August 7, 2019 monthly meeting, we will be taking nominations from the floor for anyone who wants to run for the Board.

After many years as the keeper of the ZCCC Concessions, the obtainer of name badges for club members, and the host on behalf of ZCCC of the Ability Connection Colorado (formerly CP of Colorado) car show at Arapahoe Community College, Fred Minister has relinquished his positions. We all thank Fred for his many years of service but now we need someone or several someone's to take over the duties that Fred so ably performed. Please contact me if you are interested in taking over any or all of these duties.

I want to congratulate everyone who attended ZCon 2019 and came away with awards. I have heard that despite some problems with hot water at the hotel, the event was well run and attended.

Tammy and I are looking forward to attending ZCon 2020 in Nashville next year but I have had difficulty in locating a 2 car enclosed gooseneck trailer to rent for the occasion. If anyone has a lead on such an animal, please let me know.

Ira

I am looking for the Club Banners. If you know where they are or have them in your possession please let me know or bring them to August club meeting. Thank you
Ira

Club members will be receiving an email this month with the updated sections to the constitution and proposed changes to language. Per the constitution, any new changes must be voted on by the general membership. This vote will take place at the September General meeting.

Host: Tammy Sanders please log into zccc.org to view organizer's contact info under the Upcoming Event section <http://www.zccc.org/event/drive-to-colorados-eastern-plains/>

Cost: 1 nights stay, and meals

August is upon us and it is time to get a drive in for the summer. This multi-day, 400 mi road trip will take us to the Historic Beecher Island Battlefield, we will travel the South Platte River Trail Scenic Byway, and past the Historic home of Glenn Miller. We will start our prairie excursion Saturday morning 8:00 am at the Comanche Crossing Museum in Strasburg. The museum opens at dawn, and if you are there early, start your day with a scavenger hunt of the following ten exhibits and artifacts.

- Living Springs School (1891)
- Homestead House (1910)
- Wolf Creek School (1904)
- Strasburg Union Pacific Railroad Depot (1917)
- Authentic Union Pacific Railroad caboose
- Antique wooded windmill
- Antique farm equipment
- Strasburg's first fire truck (1917 Ford)
- Strasburg's original post office
- Blacksmith shop

From here we are headed east to Beecher Island battlefield in eastern Yuma County. The plan is to be here at 12:00 for a picnic lunch. After exploring and eating lunch we will turn our compass north towards Holyoke where we will spend the night at the Cobblestone Inn and suites.

Sunday we are continuing our journey north to run the old pony express route. Then it is westward hoe to the town of Ft. Morgan where we will search for the childhood home of Glen Miller. Then it is a straight shot back to Denver.

Note: Weather conditions can change and we have entered the monsoon season. Given what we have seen recently, with down pours happening many afternoons, you may want to consider driving something other than the Z. The trip will go on and we'll have a good time even if we are in a hail damaged Pathfinder.

Where: Dinosaur Ridge Main Visitor Center

Host: Ira Sanders please log into zccc.org to view organizer's contact info under the Upcoming Event section

Cost: No Entry Fee

I have planned out 3 Zunday Mystery Drives for 3 Zundays in Zeptember. They range in length from 2 ½ hours and 85 miles long to 3 ½ hours and 130 miles long. Each day of the drive, we will meet at the Dinosaur Ridge Main Visitor Center at 8:00 a.m. The visitor's center is on the west side of C-470 at Alameda Pkwy.

On the day of the first drive, Zeptember 15, one lucky participant will get to choose from door #1, #2 or #3. That choice will determine which drive we do that day. On Zeptember 22, another lucky participant will get to choose one door from the 2 doors left and that will be the drive we do that day. On Zeptember 29, we will do the 3rd drive. After each drive is chosen, I will hand out maps of the route for the day. As the drives are all a ½ day or less, stopping for food will be optional and we'll play that by ear. Please bring radios so we can all communicate. The weather may dictate what vehicle you decide to drive but we will go rain or shine unless there is a major catastrophic weather event.

For additional info and/or to let me know if you are going, please contact me at president@zccc.org or at the number listed in the Odometer.

Z-LICIOUS

This month's Z-licious recipe was requested by Debbie Carlson

Mushroom Lasagna

From Cook's Illustrated Magazine

Serves 10-12

½ oz dried porcini mushroom, rinsed well

1 c. Water

2 lbs. [about 10 mediums] portobello mushroom caps, cleaned and cut into 2 x ¼ inch slices [Note: Grocery store had only 1 ½ lbs. of portobellos so I used ½ lb. of cremini mushrooms for remainder of 2 lbs.]

4 Tbsp. Olive oil

Table salt and ground black pepper

2 large red onions, chopped medium [about 4 c.] (I like onion but this is to much so I use med-large onions)

8 oz. Button mushrooms, cleaned, stems trimmed, broken into rough pieces

4 medium garlic cloves, minced or pressed through garlic press [about 1 Tbsp. plus 1 tsp.]

½ c. dry vermouth

3 Tbsp. unsalted butter, plus additional for greasing pan

3 Tbsp. unbleached, all-purpose flour

3 ½ c. milk [regular or low fat]

¼ tsp. ground nutmeg

¼ c. minced fresh parsley leaves

¼ c. plus 2 Tbsp. minced fresh basil leaves

8 oz. Italian fontina cheese, rind removed and shredded [about 2 ¼ c.]

1 ½ oz. grated parmesan Cheese [about ¾ c.]

12 no-boil lasagna noodles [generally one 8-oz. package]

½ tsp. grated zest from 1 lemon

1. Cover Porcini mushrooms with water in microwave-safe bowl; cover with plastic wrap, cut several stem vents in plastic with paring knife, and microwave on high power for 30 seconds. Let stand until mushrooms soften, about 5 minutes. Lift mushrooms from liquid with fork and roughly chop. [You should have about 3 Tbsp.] Strain liquid through fine mesh strainer lined with paper towel into medium bowl. Set mushrooms and liquid aside.
2. Adjust oven rack to middle position and heat oven to 425 degrees. Spread portobellos in even layer on rimmed baking sheet and drizzle with 2 Tbsp. oil, tossing to coat mushrooms evenly; sprinkle with ½ tsp. salt and ½ tsp. pepper and toss again. Roast mushrooms until shriveled and all liquid has evaporated, about 25-30 minutes, stirring halfway through cooking time. Set aside to cool.
3. While portobellos roast, heat 1 Tbsp. oil in 12-inch nonstick skillet over medium-high heat until shimmering. Add onions, ¼ tsp. salt, and ¼ tsp. pepper and cook, stirring occasionally, until onions are browned around edges, about 10-15 minutes. Transfer onions to large bowl and set aside.
4. Meanwhile, process button mushrooms in food processor until uniformly coarsely chopped, about six 1-second pulses, stopping to scrape bowl as needed. [Note: I don't have a food processor so chopping works just fine.] Heat remaining Tbsp. oil in now empty skillet over medium-high heat until shimmering.

5. Add chopped button mushrooms and cook, stirring occasionally, until browned and moisture has evaporated, 6-10 minutes.
6. Reduce heat to medium and stir in porcini mushrooms, 1 Tbsp garlic, 1 tsp. salt and 1 tsp. pepper. Cook, stirring frequently, until garlic is fragrant, about 1 minute. Add vermouth and cook, stirring occasionally, until liquid has evaporated, 3-5 minutes.
7. Add butter and cook until melted. Add flour and cook, stirring constantly, about 1 minute. Add milk, scraping pan bottom to loosen browned bits. Add reserved porcini liquid and nutmeg. Increase heat to medium-high and bring mixture to boil. Reduce heat to medium-low and simmer until sauce reaches consistency of heavy cream, 10-15 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in 2 Tbsp. parsley and $\frac{1}{4}$ c. basil.
8. Combine fontina and Parmesan in medium bowl. Toss cooled portobello mushrooms with onions in large bowl. Place noodles in 13 x 9-inch oven safe baking dish and cover with hot tap water; let soak 5 minutes, stirring occasionally to prevent sticking. Remove noodles from water and place in a single layer on kitchen towel. Wipe baking dish dry and coat with butter. Re-heat oven to 425 degrees.
9. Using rubber spatula, evenly distribute $\frac{1}{4}$ of mushroom sauce in bottom of baking dish; position 4 noodles on top of sauce. Spread another $\frac{1}{4}$ of sauce evenly over noodles followed by $\frac{1}{2}$ mushroom-onion mixture and $\frac{1}{3}$ of cheese. Repeat layering of noodles, sauce, mushroom-onion mixture, and cheese once more. Spread remaining $\frac{1}{4}$ of sauce over noodles and sprinkle with remaining $\frac{1}{3}$ of cheese. Lightly spray large sheet of aluminum foil with nonstick cooking spray and cover lasagna. Bake until bubbling, 20-30 minutes.
10. While lasagna, is baking, combine remaining 2 Tbsp. parsley, 2 Tbsp. basil, and 1 tsp. garlic with zest in small bowl. Increase oven temperature to 500 degrees, remove foil from lasagna, and continue to bake until cheese on top becomes spotty brown, 5-8 minutes. Remove lasagna from oven and immediately sprinkle evenly with herb mixture. Cool 15 minutes, then cut into pieces and serve.

A 1971 Datsun 240Z with a 2.8 liter straight 6 with three Weber Side Draft 40 DCOE Carbs, a Cannon intake and a 2 Piece header. Only about 2,000 miles on the engine and transmission since rebuild. The body is in good shape but could use paint. The suspension has been rebuilt with heavy duty Sway Bars front and rear with Tokico adjustable shocks all around. The suspension, carb jetting and new clutch were all done by Jeff Winter of Winter Motorsports. The car is solid mechanically and is at the point to take it to full race or make a really nice street car. Asking $10,500, Call Tom at 303-549-0556 ad expire 8/2019
