THE PREZ POST

BY CHERYL MCKENNEY

As I sit here writing this Thanksgiving is fast approaching. And it has me thinking of all that I have to be thankful for this year. First and foremost, I am thankful for my family and all the fun we have had together this year. I have gotten to see my husband excel at his new passion pickleball and to see my children attain the goals that they have set for themselves.

I am also grateful for the four-legged family members that bring so much joy to our family.

I am also thankful for Bruce and I being well and healthy this year. As I get older, I realize this may not always be true, so I am enjoying this time now.

I am thankful for our extended family and friends that make life more adventurous and fun.

I am thankful for good neighbors that not only look after us but who we are able to help as well.

I am thankful for a great group of co-workers. They make long days easier and are always there with a smile and great attitude.

I am thankful for the Z Car Club and its members who are always ready for a car show or drive.

I am thankful for all the great events of the past year and am looking forward to even more next year.

I am grateful for the Board members who work diligently to make the Club exciting and a place members want to be.

I hope this holiday season that you are happy and healthy and surrounded by the love of your family. As I am truly grateful for the opportunity to serve as your president. So other than that, I have nothing to report.

LETTER FROM YOUR EDITOR BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE LETTER "H"

From the Editor

This month's Odometer is brought to you by the letter "H" for all the holidays that are coming up. Thanksgiving was this month and I hope you had a wonderful celebration with family and friends. Our SO CAL Dermans came in and we enjoyed their visit. Our holiday party will launch the holiday season and we already have almost 25 people signed up. It's going to be big! As I am writing this it is 72 degrees and we are still having beautiful fall weather. The leaves are still falling and my backyard has 2 inches of leaves already. We did have an 11 inch accumulation of snow the day of the Trunk Or Treat. We were so looking forward to that event. At least we will be ready for next year. We just turned our clocks back and the winter solstice is almost upon us. Chloe does not understand that "Yappy Hour" is in the dark now. She is ready at 3:00 PM.

A reminder that we only have one event scheduled for next year thanks to the RhyneZ so get your creative side going and let's plan some events! Robert Eagon has scheduled the annual Childrens Hospital Toy Run in conjunction with the VQ Club for 12/10. It was a huge success last year so please mark your calendars.

Nate, Chloe and I are wishing all of our Z Car family a happy Channukah, Merry Christmas and happy new year. Stay warm my friends and happy reading.

Member Bruce McKenney had this photo taken while he was celebrating a very early Christmas adorning his 2022 active member shirt in Dallas, TX coming home from a national pickleball tournament. Bruce said it was a week long event similar to ZCON with lots of fun activities. He had to qualify to be invited. He did medal in 11 of 16 tournaments for the year. ZCCC HELPING OUT THE COMMUNITY

Jason Spegal spent the day with Topher and Kim who reached out to Nate Derman about their 240z. They were able to get it running. Turns out it has been parked since 1982 and has a bit of history and a lot of memories for them and Topher's mom as it was his dad's car. They have an idea about where to go with it from here and will likely be joining the club. Thanks to Jason for helping these two out with getting Topher's Dad's car running.

Two popular Japanese classics under $25K

Hagerty Price Guide

Among the various corners of the collector car market, few have seen such widespread ascent in the last decade as vehicles from Japan. Demographically, this makes sense—just as muscle cars transitioned from mere “used” cars to collector status as the generation that grew up with them hit their peak earning years, so too have cars from the '80s, '90s, and early aughts. What's more, though there are plenty of standout moonshot examples—looking at you, Skyline GT-R and Mk IV Supra—this latest round of emerging classics also offers more accessible ways to enjoy cars from a bygone era.

We dug into our Hagerty Price Guide data to see which Japanese collectibles can be had in #2 (excellent) condition for under $25K. This fetches a needs-almost-nothing example that, while not quite concours level, is nice enough to proudly display at shows and events, or just use and enjoy as a pristine example. Driver-quality cars can typically be had for thousands less. We wanted to get a feel for what's popular in addition to where the values stack up, so we layered insurance policy data on top of the $25K threshold to see which models in this group were most abundant among Hagerty customers. Here are two out of the top ten.

2003–2008 Nissan 350Z

1968–1973 Datsun 510

Three generations of Z-car on this list suggests Nissan was doing something right back in the day. After a brief hiatus, the Z returned, eschewing the previous generation's tech-heavy '90s approach for retro-ish styling and the now-revered (but aurally divisive) naturally aspirated VQ35DE 3.5-liter engine. Its debut was welcomed with enthusiastic reviews, and it quickly became a regular in the tuner scene and at track days.

The 350Z's sporting pretenses mean that many of them have met a noble end fulfilling their intended purpose, and still more have been cut up or modified in that vein. Clean ones are out there, but they do take some sleuthing. Right now, #2 condition values range between $23K and $24,900 depending on year and trim. The 350Z was also part of Hagerty's 2023 Bull Market vintage.

Datsun's 510 (Nissan Bluebird outside the U.S.) stands as one of the first cars to truly convert Americans into loyal customers of a Japanese brand. As we highlighted in a recent Market Spotlight, the small sedan dominated its class in racing throughout the '70s and introduced a fun, affordable driving experience to thousands.

They're still reasonably affordable, too, despite a recent uptick in values. $20,500 will fetch a #2 condition sedan. Expect to pay more for coupes, as they're more rare.

Upgrading your front brakes to use the calipers from a Toyota 4x4 pickup is a popular conversion because it seems a no-brainer: 4-pistons instead of 2 and the calipers bolt right up without any modification. I did some research and investigation and it turns out that the upgrade does nothing to improve your brakes for daily driving and might even make them worse.

I put together a webpage with all of the details and you might want to take a look before doing the conversion yourself. For the full article:

Check out Empire Nismo Enthusiasts or Empire Lakewood Nissan on their Facebook pages for other events they may be hosting and photos from previous events and be sure and stay tuned for our club hosted events beginning in the spring. These shows not only help to promote the club and dealership, but they also allow us to engage in the community and foster interest in Z cars.
