Corn dip, jambalaya, Doritos casserole, Mexican spaghetti, shrimp and grits, and poundcake are among the dozens of recipes in the new Nissan Family Cookbook! The book is a collection of 140 family-favorite recipes and treats shared by employees of Nissan's U.S. manufacturing team. Hearty Jambalaya

"While our team is best known for assembling some of the highest-quality vehicles for consumers, they are also quite crafty in the kitchen," said Steve Marsh, senior vice president, manufacturing, supply chain and purchasing, Nissan North America, Inc. "The kitchen is typically the center of holiday activity. It's where everybody wants to be, and there's no reason why this can't continue, even during these unprecedented times."

ANNUAL HOLIDAY PARTY AND GIFT EXCHANGE

RECAP BY CHERYLE DERMAN

December 11, 2021

Nate and I and Chloe hosted our annual holiday party at our home with a record breaking 31 members and guests in attendance. There was a delicious assortment of hot dishes, appetizers and beautifully decorated cookies, cakes and pies. Everyone brought tasty beverages as well.

The White Elephant gift exchange got quite lively with several gifts being stolen twice. The gifts were so much fun this year. Wendy definitely got creative with the Nissan jar filled with car themed cookie making items and cookbook. Wine seemed to be the theme for the gift exchange.

Thank you all for attending and we hope you had as much fun as we did.

The lights of the season once again did not disappoint! The evening started with appetizers and dessert at our house. We had a great turn out of new and seasoned members of the Club. After we had refreshments and got treats to go, we headed out for the tour. We saw many great displays on homes in the area and were able to see a few light shows along the way! We even had a visit from the jolly old elf himself! At the end of the tour, we arrived back at our home for a few more desserts and shared our thoughts on the highlights of the evening. So glad we were able to share the spirit of the season with everyone!

♥ Z-LICIOUS QUICHE ♥

When: Sunday, February 6th at 9am

Where: Zoom \(Click this hyperlink to join\)

Host: Tiffany Gordon

Valentine's Day is on the horizon. Do you need something delicious to make for your significant other? In November, we made yummy cornbread casserole. This month, come cook a delicious breakfast item with your fellow Z enthusiasts. Your significant other will LOVE it.

We will join together on Zoom to make a quick and easy quiche. What you will need for this dish: 1 Jimmy Dean pork sausage (16 oz), 1 8oz bag of shredded cheddar cheese, ½ cup of mayo, 4 eggs, 8oz of half and half, garlic powder, salt and pepper (or your favorite seasoning), 2 TBSP of all-purpose flour, 4oz can of mild green chiles (optional), 1 fresh pie crust (I prefer Pillsbury in the refrigerated section), a bowl, a spoon and a 9-inch pie dish. If you would like to make this vegetarian, just sub the sausage for your favorite veggies like mushrooms and spinach. Would you rather have bacon instead of sausage? This recipe is pretty versatile for you to add your favorite ingredients. Hope to Z you there with your z-riffic cooking skills!

The first to have the correct answer gets the point. Bring your favorite beverage or snack, find your best game winning chair to sit in, and open that screen to join us on Zoom. Hope to Z you there!

The new Z is going racing

Submitted by Andy Mortenson

Hagerty 06 December 2021

Nissan is taking the new Z racing. They just revealed a brand-new Nissan Z GT500 race car at Fuji Speedway in Japan, which the firm says will compete in the Japan-only Super GT racing series beginning next year. The car looks wicked—the classic lines that have us adoring the production Z are still there, but now there are box flares, dive planes, and a honking rear wing on the back. GT500 is the quicker of the two classes in the Super GT series, with GT300 being the slower one. GT500 cars have far more downforce than their GT300 counterparts, which helps them turn much quicker lap times.

FACEBOOK MYSTERY 280 Z IN POLAND

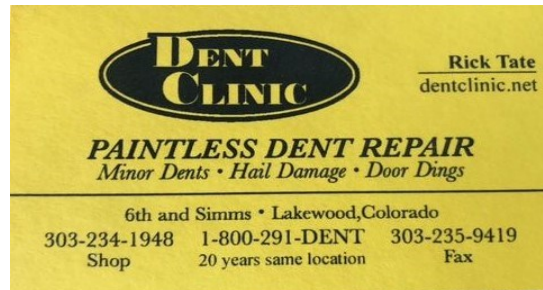

By Tiffany Gordon

We got a message on our Facebook page from someone who recently purchased a 280 Z in Poland. He said that his vehicle has a Z Car Club of Colorado sticker on it and was hoping to reach out to the original owner. Does anyone have any idea who this vehicle might have belonged to? I'm not sure why he wants to reach out to the new owner, maybe for nostalgia? Any ideas? It is Certainly amazing that a 280z went from Colorado to Poland. It definitely was in some kind of accident. Please see the screenshots with his message and the pictures. If you know someone that may have an idea, please forward this information to them as well... Thank you, Tiffany Gordon
