THE PREZ POST

BY CHERYL MCKENNEY

Happy New Z Year! Our fiscal year has begun for the Z Car Club of Colorado. Our new board was installed at the annual banquet at the beginning of October. As your new president I am looking forward to sharing my ideas about growing the club and keeping our members engaged. Our new Vice President, Mike Rhyne also has some great ideas and is excited to get started.

A few facts about myself that you may not know. I am a Colorado native (and so is Bruce). I grew up in Northglenn and my parents still live in the same house. Bruce and I have 2 boys, one who lives in Golden with his wife and the other in Fort Collins. I enjoy reading, crocheting, and gardening when I can find the time. And I am also an avid dog walker with Leo.

In October we had the opportunity to support our club sponsor Empire Nissan at the annual Trunk or Treat event. Unfortunately, the event was cancelled due to the return of winter weather. The car shows at Empire will return in the spring. These shows not only help to promote the club and dealership, but they also allow us to engage in the community and foster interest in Z cars.

Over the next few months, I am hoping the board can come up with ways to keep the members more engaged in the club. We will be looking to make the meetings more informative and interactive. The board is also looking for ways to get more members involved by hosting and attending events. So, over the next few months you will see some changes in the meetings and events. I am excited about the changes, and I hope you will be too! Thank you again for the opportunity to serve as your President. I am looking forward to the new year and all the fun activities and events. So other than that, I have nothing else to report.

Cheryl McKenney
President, Z Car Club of Colorado

LETTER FROM YOUR EDITOR BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE LETTER "F"

This month's Odometer is brought to you by the letter "F" for Fortieth Anniversary and banquet. It was a colossal event with a great turnout, wonderful food, and lots of surprises. Thank you to our outgoing President, and my wonderful husband, Nate, for giving me the President's award. We will all miss you as our President, but, I am sure Cheryl will do a great job.

Jason held an amazing drive on 9/30-10/1. We all enjoyed the peaking leaves and fabulous company. Please see all the beautiful pictures in this edition. Unfortunately the Trunk Or Treat was cancelled due to weather. Winter is quickly approaching. I did enjoy the perfect fall weather earlier in the month. There are only two events on the calendar. Please challenge yourselves to come up with some fun events for December and/or next year. Please make sure you clear the date with our Vice President, Mike Rhyne, and send him an article to add to the calendar. He will in turn send it to me to be posted in the Odometer.

For now, "Happy reading">

Don and Judy Gordon were caught on camera in using their new 2023 active member gift chargers on their trip to Mexico flying on United Airlines and cruising on Royal Caribbean. It looks like they came in very handy. And, they can tell them apart! They had a beautiful balcony view and Don was posing with his 2016 backpack.

40TH ANNIVERSARY GENERAL MEETING AND BANQUET RECAP

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7, 2023

BY CHERYLE DERMAN

We had a fabulous, fun filled 40th anniversary celebration. There was lots of good cheer, over 40 50/50 drawings, beautiful hand designed 2024 calendars by Wendy Rhyne, (every family that attended received one) ZCCC car plaques, and of course, active member awards. This year they were quite different being portable chargers with our logo on them. There was a table displaying Odometers dating back to the first edition through to the present. Cheryle Derman received the President's award and the Board gifts were stunning trophies.

There were brand new members in attendance and long time members Debbie Carlson, Ron Gardner and Patty Troxell who gave testimonials.

We said farewell to longstanding Board member and vice president, Don Gordon and Interclub Liaison, Bruce McKenney. They will be greatly missed. We also said adieu to our President, Nate Derman but Nate will remain on the Board as our Public Relations Director. We installed our new Board members as well as members retaining their positions. You can view the positions as listed on page 6 of the Odometer. Also, please attend our general meetings via Zoom beginning in November to get to know our new Board.

All in all, it was a perfect evening and I hope everyone who attended had a great time. Thank you all for coming.

Modern cars know frightening details about us. What about classics?

Hagerty Media

Mozilla, the San Francisco-based internet foundation and software company responsible for the Firefox browser, considers itself something of a public-minded curator of online issues, including privacy. In 2017, it started a buyer's guide called **Privacy Not Included* (the asterisk is theirs), "a guide about the privacy and security of connected toys, gadgets, and smart home products."

Since then, Mozilla has reviewed dozens of products.

But nothing, it says, sucks up your private data like automobiles.

"Nowadays," Mozilla found, "our cars are anything but a private space—they are full blown data collection nightmares on wheels."

Do tell, Mozilla.

"New Mozilla research has revealed that popular global car brands—like Chevrolet, Nissan, Toyota, Kia, Audi, Jeep, Honda, Volkswagen, and more—are collecting your deeply personal data, like your genetic information and sexual activity." Woe to the poor spy sitting in a laboratory somewhere, collecting my "sexual activity" data. He's likely working crossword puzzles, trying not to fall off his stool from boredom.

"This invasive harvesting of information," Mozilla continues, "is collected via a web of sensors, microphones, cameras, and the phones, apps, and connected services you use in your vehicle. All 25 car brands we researched earned our **Privacy Not Included* warning label—making cars the official worst category of products for privacy that we have ever reviewed."

Nissan, for example, takes it on the chin: "So, how is Nissan at privacy? We're not going to mince words here: THEY STINK AT PRIVACY! They are probably the worst car company we reviewed and that says something. Believe us when we say this: Nissan's privacy policy is probably the most mind-boggling creepy, scary, sad, messed up privacy policy we have ever read. Here's why: They come right out and say they can collect and share your sexual activity, health diagnosis data, and genetic information and other sensitive personal information for targeted marketing purposes ..."

I'll pause while you Nissan owners consult your owner's manual, or wherever car companies print those privacy policy alerts. And I'll pause for another moment while you try to remember what you recently said, or texted, or listened to, or did in the back seat of your Altima.

Mozilla has similar reviews of the other car companies, evidently based on the companies' printed privacy policies, rather than any inside information or examples of how they misuse the data they glean.

Seriously, I should be more upset about this than I am, but I've always figured my cars and trucks know more about me than anyone. I just never suspected anyone else would be interested. Some examples of how my cars knew me better than I knew myself:

My Ford Ranchero: Usually with a dirt bike in the back and a stack of Dirt Bike magazines on the seat. I was going to be a professional motocross rider, lacking only one thing: Talent. I was good at falling off, not much else. There were more traces of blood inside the Ranchero than in a Law & Order episode. Medical data is valuable, I hear.

My Pontiac Trans Am: Yes, it was 1977, and I bought it right before Smokey and the Bandit hit theaters. It had a 23-channel CB radio. I had big sunglasses and wore a lot of black. Girlfriend Brenda sort of favored Sally Field but it was, I swear, just a coincidence.

My Datsun 240Z: I became a Man Of The World with my first foreign car, which is what we called them then. Joined the club, went autocrossing, was as good at that as I was motocross, but I fell down less. The Datsun could tell I was going places, maybe even growing up a little bit.

Yeah. Our old cars know us better than anybody. And they keep it to themselves.
